Checks to The First Unitarian Church of Honolulu. Thank you!

We look forward to seeing you and your children at church EVERY week. This is the best way to make strong connections with others in our religious community. This way we all may benefit from our shared experience, knowledge and wisdom, and build a strong liberal religious presence here in Honolulu and in the world.

The Religious Education Program is a cooperative program staffed by volunteers. Parents are asked to contribute FOUR hours in the Fall, and FOUR hours in the Spring to working in the Religious Education Program. Please circle one or more of the following ways to help:
